12 RE: RULE 11 PROCEEDINGS (PLEA OF GUILTY)

3 Defendant filed a motion for change of plea on June 30, 2009. (Docket No.

5 II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

6 On July 21, 2009, while assisted by Héctor L. Ramos-Vega, Assistant Federal 7 Public Defender, the defendant, by consent, appeared before me in order to change
8 his previous not guilty plea to a plea of guilty as to both counts of the indictment.

9 In open court the defendant was questioned as to the purpose of the hearing
10 being held. The defendant responded that the purpose of the hearing was to plead 11 guilty. The defendant was advised of his right to have all proceedings, including the 12 change of plea hearing, before a United States district judge. Defendant was given
13 notice of: (a) the nature and purpose of the hearing; (b) the fact that all inquiries 14 were to be conducted under oath and that it was expected that his answers would 15 be truthful (he was also explained that the consequences of lying under oath could 16 lead to a perjury charge); and (c) his right to have the change of plea proceedings 17 presided over by a district judge instead of a magistrate judge. The defendant was 18 also explained the differences between the appointment and functions of the two.
19 The defendant consent to proceed before this magistrate judge.

20
21 III. Proceedings Under Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

22
23 A. Compliance With Requirements Rule 11(c)(1)

24
25 Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure
26 governs the acceptance of guilty pleas to federal criminal 27 violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, in order for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, guilty pleas must be knowing and voluntary: "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of his plea.'" United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U.S. 459, 467 (1969)). [There are three core concerns in these proceedings]: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea. United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d at 4 (citing United States v. Allard, 926 F.2d 1237, 1244-45 (1st Cir. 1991)).

United States v. Hernández-Wilson, 186 F.3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999).

In response to further questioning, the defendant noted that he understood that if convicted of counts one and two of the indictment, he was exposed to a maximum term of imprisonment of 20 years, a fine of $1,000,000, and a term of supervised release of not more than three years.

He was also explained that parole has been abolished and that there were immigration consequences as a result of the sentence.

He also acknowledged that he was to pay a monetary assessment fee in the amount of $100, per count. See 18 U.S.C. § 3013.

Defendant was advised that the ultimate sentence was a matter solely for the court to decide in its discretion and that, even if the maximum imprisonment term and fine were to be imposed upon him, or any number of years up to the maximum, he later could not withdraw his guilty plea if he was unhappy with the sentence of the court. The defendant understood this.

1 CRIMINAL 09-0166 (JAG)

3 Defendant was explained what the supervised release term means. It was 4 emphasized that cooperation with the United States Probation officer would assist
5 the court in reaching a fair sentence.
6

7 Emphasis was made on the fact that at this stage, no prediction or promises
8 as to the sentence to be imposed could be made by anyone. Defendant responded to 9 questions in that no promises, threats or predictions as to what sentence will be 10 imposed have been made to him.
11

12 B. Admonishment of Constitutional Rights

13 To assure defendant's understanding and awareness of his rights, defendant
14 was advised of his right:
15

16 1. To remain silent at trial and be presumed innocent, since it is the 17 government who has the burden of proving his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
18

19 2. To testify or not to testify at trial, and that no comment could be made
20 by the prosecution in relation to his decision not to testify.

22 3. To a speedy trial before a district judge and a jury, at which he would 23 be entitled to see and cross examine the government witnesses, present evidence on 24 his behalf, and challenge the government's evidence.

26 4. To have a unanimous verdict rendered by a jury of twelve persons which 27 would have to be convinced of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt by means 28 of competent evidence.

5. To use the subpoena power of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses.

Upon listening to the defendant's responses, observing his demeanor and his speaking with his attorney, it is determined that defendant is aware of his constitutional rights.

C. Consequences of Pleading Guilty

Upon advising defendant of his constitutional rights, he was further advised of the consequences of pleading guilty. Specifically, defendant was advised that by pleading guilty and upon having his guilty plea accepted by the court, he will be giving up the above rights and would be convicted solely on his statement that he is guilty.

Furthermore, the defendant was admonished of the fact that by pleading guilty he would not be allowed later on to withdraw his plea because he eventually might disagree with the sentence imposed, and that when he were under supervised release, and upon violating the conditions of such release, that privilege could be revoked and he could be required to serve an additional term of imprisonment.

D. Plea Agreement

The parties have not entered into any written or oral plea agreement. This is a straight plea.

1 CRIMINAL 09-0166 (JAG)

6

3 E. Government's Evidence (Basis in Fact)

4
5 The government presented a proffer of its evidence with which the defendant
6 concurred. The government's proffer complied with and tracked the statutory 7 language as to the indictment.

8 Accordingly, it is determined that there is a basis in fact and evidence to 9 establish all elements of the offense charged.
10

11 F. Voluntariness

12 The defendant accepted that no leniency had been promised, no threats had 13 been made to induce him to plead guilty and that he did not feel pressured to plead
14 guilty. He came to the hearing for the purpose of pleading guilty and listened 15 attentively as the prosecutor outlined the facts which it would prove if the case had 16 proceeded to trial.
17

18 IV. Conclusion

19 The defendant, by consent, has appeared before me pursuant to Rule 11, 20 Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and has entered a plea of guilty to the 21 indictment.
22

23 After cautioning and examining the defendant under oath and in open court, 24 concerning each of the subject matters mentioned in Rule 11, as described in the 25 preceding sections, I find that the defendant Santiago Bautista-Flores is competent 26 to enter this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the offenses charged and the 27 maximum statutory penalties that the same carries, understands that the charges
28

3 are supported by the government's evidence, has admitted to every element of the 4 offenses charged, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with full
5 knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea.
6

7 Therefore, I recommend that the court accept the guilty plea of the defendant
8 and that the defendant be adjudged guilty as to counts one and two of the 9 indictment.

11 This report and recommendation is filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B)
12 and Rule 504.3 of the Local Rules of Court. Any objections to the same must be 13 specific and must be filed with the Clerk of Court within five (5) days of its receipt.
14 Rule 510.1, Local Rules of Court; Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). Failure to timely file specific 15 objections to the report and recommendation is a waiver of the right to review by the 16 district court. United States v. Valencia-Copete, 792 F.2d 4 (1st Cir. 1986).
